Memorial Day at New Martinsville.

Correspondence of the Intelligences.

New Martinsville, W. V.A., May 30.—
Capt. Philip G. Bier, Poet Number 17, G.
A. R., and the citizens generally of this place observed Memorial Day here this morning. At 8:30 o'clock they assembled at the Methodist Episcopal church where after appropriate services the audience were diamissed to meet at the Williams Cemetery, some two miles up the river from here. Many had their own conveyances, some walked and the up train on the Ohio River railroad carried about two hundred. The usual Grand Army services were held at the cemetery, Rev. D. S. Hammond, the Methodist Episcopal miniater, kindly assisting. The graves of the Union and Confederate dead were alike decorated with flowers. T. P. "Let Us Have Feace."

Postmaster-General Vilag in his Decoration Day address, delivered in Brooklyn, said: "He has spoken treason though not dared to act it, who from the one side deared to act it, who from the one side the safe who waighed with the anory of the world from the time of this place, furnished us with appropriate address.
